This hilarious farce is filled with nonstop pandemonium! Welcome to opening night of community theatre troupe, Cornley Polytechnic Drama Society's newest production of an Agatha Christie-like 1920s murder mystery The Murder at Haversham Manor — where things are quickly going from bad to utterly disastrous! The set, the props, the lighting and the sound thwart the performers at every turn.

Eventually, a few of these semi-amateur thespians, demoralized by disaster, go rogue. It's a stage manager's worst nightmare — and an audience's cue for laughter. With an unconscious leading lady, a corpse that can't play dead, and actors who trip over everything (including their lines), the accident-prone thespians battle against all odds to make it through to their final curtain!

“Tons of fun for all ages” (HuffPost)

“The Play That Goes Wrong has ‘disaster’ down to a science” (theatermania.com)
